

Initiative of creating Dutch-Polish Rural Platform of Cooperation

DUTCH-POLISH RURAL PLATFORM

→ Sectors

Aerospace

Automotive

Biotechnology

BSS Sector - Business Services
Sector

Domestic Appliances

Electronics

Food processing

IT

Renewable Energy

Research & Development

- coordination and facilitation

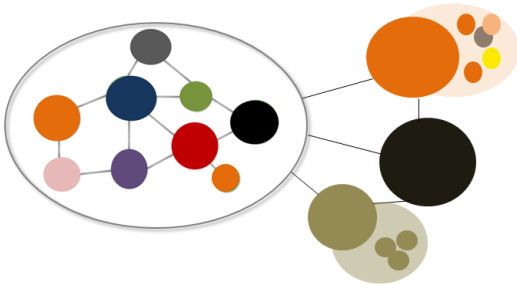

Kingdom of the Netherlands

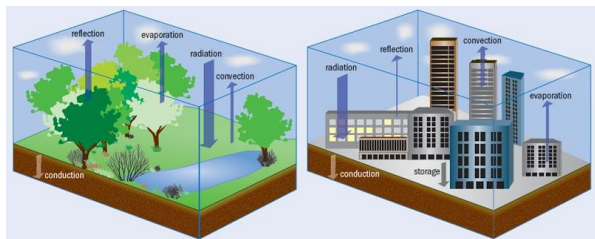

- Agriculture & Food
- Green technology,
- Biobased economy
- Future farming (smart farming, social farming)
- Technology in learning and working
- Business management
- Education

General areas of interest:

- New technologies in farming
- Alternative fuel technologies;
- Autonomous vehicles serving rural areas;
- Reducing CO2 emissions in agricultural production processes;
- Development of competence centres in the field of agricultural productivity and sustainable mechanization

Objectives of Platform

- creating growth areas via common projects for the rural areas,
- forming transparent and efficient models of international cooperation,
- investing in people, technology, sustainable solutions,
- promoting modern learning , education and cooperation for the rural areas development,
- creating international clusters of cooperation which can be efficiently operating on the European market with strong connections and contribution to the local economy
- developing business relations

Villages and small towns as catalysts for rural development

Civil society's contribution to the development of a comprehensive food policy in the EU

A better life in rural areas

